BULLSHIT

Well it's in black and white
Up in lights
On the wall
The toilet door
Like a guiding light
They'll drag you to the left
They'll pull you to the right
Lift you up
Just to let you down
Kick you out at night
I say the politics
Well they're lunatics
They say it's right
But we know it's wrong
Spread the word

But it's all just
Bullshit to me
Bullshit to me
Bullshit to me
Bullshit to me

Hey don't stand in line
And don't pay that fine
You shouldn't have worked today
You should have stayed away
And spread the word
Well as the sweat runs down
This furrowed brow
Across these hands
Across this machine
I don't care anyhow

Chorus

But it's Bullshit to me
Bullshit to me
Bullshit to me
Bullshit
Just all, just all Bullshit
Just all, just all Bullshit

Bullshit, Bullshit, Bullshit
