DESIGNED FOR COOKING!

11th April 2006

Designed Kitchen Appliances - Subiaco's cooking institution and mecca of luxury kitchen appliances will host the cooking demonstration stage at the 2006 iDesign Exhibition. The interior design focussed event is being held from May 5th to May 7th at the Showgrounds Exhibition Centre in Claremont.

From a stunning purpose-built kitchen on stage, DKA's resident chef John Maiorana aka The Gourmet Godfather will host a collection of lively gourmet demonstrations featuring passionate cooking tips and lots of laughs. Joined by Christine Simpson of Fresh Finesse and Vince Garreffa aka the Prince of Flesh, the presentations will both educate and entertain! Not only will there be great advice on offer, visitors will also get the chance to share a meal with The Gourmet Godfather himself!

At 3pm each day, renowned wine writer Peter Forrestal will provide unique wine education and tasting seminars to complement the cooking demonstrations.

Supporting Designed Kitchen Appliances will be a range of their suppliers on stand 205 including Miele, Bosch, Sampford & Staff, La Germania, Olivieri, Vintec, Qasair and more, providing you with an insight of their service and product range.

The demonstrations will be staged daily at 11am, 12noon, 1pm, 2pm and 3pm.
