

ONE HOT DAY

Got a short term memory
Thank God for that
You've found your long lost enemy
But now you won't look back
Didn't know at eight o'clock
You didn't know at nine
One letter, this letter
You say you know this time
One day, you'll leave them all behind
Some day, gonna strike them blind

Chorus

It's gonna burn your heart
One Hot Day
It's gonna strike them blind
One Hot Day

As the poet wrote the words
We're the lucky sons
One life, one life is all you get
So take it while you're young
Go and paint a Rembrandt
Go and lay the Queen
Pay up, pay up, have your fun
Realise your dreams
One day, leave them all behind
Some day, the sun will strike them blind

Chorus

It's gonna burn your heart
One Hot Day
It's gonna strike them blind
One Hot Day
It's gonna burn your heart
One Hot Day
It's gonna strike them blind
One Hot Day

Repeat Chorus
