CULTURAL STUDIES OF SCIENCE EDUCATION
Volume 3  No. 3  September 2008

INDIGENOUS KNOWLEDGE AND SCIENCE EDUCATION

Editors: Glen Aikenhead, Wolff-Michael Roth and Kenneth Tobin

Editorial

KENNETH GEORGE TOBIN / Contributing to the conversation in science education 535–540

Distinguished Contributors

ALANDEOM W. OLIVEIRA and KOSHI DHINGRA / Experiencing science education in the US: the international graduate student perspective 541–553

JACQUES DÉSAUTEELS / Celebrating one of our elders: a tribute to Glen Aikenhead 555–566

NADARAJ GOVENDER, ANITHA RAMSURAN and RUBBY DHUNPATH / Clifford Malcolm: glimpses of his South African legacy of hope 567–580

Editorial

GLEN S. AIKENHEAD / Objectivity: the opiate of the academic? 581–585

Article

MOYRA KEANE / Science education and worldview 587–613

Forum

CLIFF MALCOLM, DAWN SUTHERLAND and MOYRA KEANE / Teaching IK in school science: depths of understanding, nuances, and just do it 614–621

In memoriam

GLEN S. AIKENHEAD / In memory of Cliff Malcolm 623–624

Articles

ANARU WOOD and BRIAN LEWTHWAITE / Māori science education in Aotearoa New Zealand 625–654

Forum

GEORGINA STEWART, ANARU WOOD and BRIAN LEWTHWAITE / Sketching a map: navigating the spaces between science and Pūtaiao 655–662
ANN RYAN / Indigenous knowledge in the science curriculum: avoiding neo-colonialism 663–683

Forum

PETER CHARLES TAYLOR / Reflections on qualitative research writing: warrants, perspectives, structure and theory? 684–693
KATHRYN SCANTLEBURY / Whose knowledge? Whose curriculum? 694–696
ANN RYAN / Towards working in spaces, between and both 697–702

CAROL B. BRANDT / Discursive geographies in science: space, identity, and scientific discourse among indigenous women in higher education 703–720

Forum

RAY BARNHARDT, DEBORAH TIPPINS and CAROL B. BRANDT / Locations of possibilities in tertiary science education: Responding to the voices of Navajo women 721–730

BRYAN MCKINLEY JONES BRAYBOY and ANGELINA E. CASTAGNO / How might Native science inform “informal science learning”? 731–750

Forum

CHARBEL NIÑO EL-HANI and FÁBIO PEDRO SOUZA DE FERREIRA BANDEIRA / Valuing indigenous knowledge: to call it “science” will not help 751–779
MARILYN FLEER / A cultural-historical reading of “Culturally Sensitive Schooling”: thinking beyond a constructivist view of science learning 781–786
BRYAN MCKINLEY JONES BRAYBOY and ANGELINA E. CASTAGNO / Indigenous Knowledges and native science as partners: a rejoinder 787–791