In response to your e-mail I can confirm that Timulkenny is a Townland to the North West of Portadown. It is near an area called Scotch Street and while not shown on Sheet 19, this sheet does cover the area. Discoverer Series maps do not show all Townlands. It is also shown on 1:10 000 Sheet 181 South West in more detail. This map costs £40.00 plus postage and packaging.

I hope this information is of use to you.

Regards
William Sharpe NI Ordnance.
